

How to Participate in Safe + Sound Week – August 12-18

SIGN UP TO PARTICIPATE

Why should we participate?

When you sign up for Safe + Sound Week, you show your commitment to workplace safety and health to your workers, management, business partners, and the community. Successful safety and health programs manage and identify hazards before they cause injury or illness, saving money and improving your bottom line.

How do we sign up?

Participating is easy and fun, just sign up! Beginning in July, visit osha.gov/SafeAndSoundWeek. Fill out the short registration form. You can even add your business to the Safe + Sound Week map!

How do we participate?

You can plan a private event for your workplace or host a public event that is free and open to everyone. You can host one activity or have weekly events – the choice is yours! We have customizable materials to help plan your Safe + Sound Week activities.

Find Safe + Sound Week materials here: osha.gov/SafeAndSoundWeek/Plan-And-Promote

PLAN YOUR ACTIVITIES

The Hunt for Hazards

It's time to act! Choose a topic to focus on for Safe + Sound Week or join us as we hunt for hazards.

Join Detective C. Hazards on The Hunt for Hazards at your workplace! Follow along to identify suspects (review jobs), gather evidence (identify hazards), and solve the case (implement controls). Daily videos, activities, and more will be shared. Find these in July at osha.gov/SafeAndSoundWeek and check back for updates.

Daily Activities for Hazard Detectives

MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SAT / SUN
The Case Context: Why a Job Hazard Analysis matters	Identify Suspects Choose a job to analyze	Gather Evidence Review job steps and tasks	Stakeout Observe and watch, inspect steps closely	Solve the Case! Identify and implement controls	Review your Work Monitor controls, feedback, and safety training

OTHER IDEAS FOR SAFE + SOUND WEEK

Want to focus on a different safety topic? Make your own Safe + Sound Week path or use the ideas below.

Start Your Safety and Health Program

- Review 10 Ways to get Your Program Started
- Have workers share why safety matters to them
- Review and update training on how to recognize hazards
- Define program goals
- Start a near-miss and incident reporting system

Recommit to Safety

- Identify a new way to involve workers
- Remove barriers to participation
- Hold a refresher training on safety reporting
- Provide opportunities for feedback and ideas
- Complete a Safe + Sound challenge
- Request an on-site consultation

Recognize Your Successes

- Explore the Step-by-Step Guide's Level 2 Worksheets
- Set new safety and health goals
- Apply to OSHA's Voluntary Protection Program \(VPP\)
- Request a proclamation for Safe + Sound
- Start a recognition program

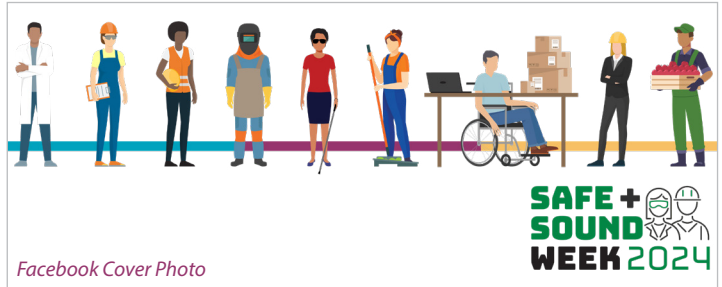

FIND MATERIALS AND EXAMPLES

Find resources on developing your safety and health program

View the Event Archive for examples of how businesses participated

Explore all the Safe + Sound Week materials

Search #SafeAndSoundAtWork on social media

Facebook Cover Photo

Worker Safety Pledge

Participant Badge

Worker Shareable

DON'T FORGET

Promote your Participation

Show how you engaged your workers during Safe + Sound Week or how your safety and health program has improved your workplace on social media.

Recognize your Accomplishments

After Safe + Sound Week, download a certificate and virtual challenge coin from our website.

osha.gov/SafeAndSoundWeek

#SafeAndSoundAtWork

SafeAndSoundCampaign@dol.gov